June Fondue is awesome. We love her workout videos, and are stoked for her new one, "We Can Work It Out." You need a lot of core strength to heist all day, and crouching and sneaking can really hurt your back if you don't exercise properly. June's "Super Squats" video has totally changed our heisting game.

Stealing is a super dangerous business. We make sure that all our meetings are held in secret, so we meet at midnight in the back of a Penny's restaurant. No one suspects us there, and who doesn't love all-day breakfast? Our society president, Carmen San Francisco, recently stole the Mona Lisa and hung it in her bathroom. She says it matches the shower curtain. Next we're planning a heist to steal the painting across from the Mona Lisa, Veronese's Wedding at Cana. We love weddings.
