COSTUMES!

We always encourage dressing up!

It is not necessary or required to costume yourself in order to participate in the game. However, if you'd like to add to the experience, here are some ideas:

LADIES: The classic 1920's look is the flapper. Fringe, shorter skirts, sequins and flair, pearl necklaces, headband like headpieces. Or perhaps you are more of an everyday gal: longer skirts, bows and ties at the neck and "waist," cloche hats, gloves. Dropped waists and geometric designs — art deco for both!

GENTLEMAN: Double breasted suits, regular suits, button downs, bow ties, fedoras, slicked back hair, bowlers, boosters, pinstripes, suspenders, newsboy caps, vests, arm garters for rolling up your shirt.

NON-BINARY: Mix and match from either the above, or perhaps go the writer-route, with a sweater vest or cardigan over a button-up and a newsboy cap and bow tie. As in every era, people were playing with how they expressed themselves.

SUSPECT NOTES

1920'S SLANG

	Absent treatment: Dance with a timid partner
	Applesauce: Nonsense!
	Bearcat: A fiery woman
	Bee's knees: Fantastic
	Big cheese: An important person

	Bird: A (usually odd) person
	Bootlegging: Selling illegal alcohol
	Bump off: Murder
	Chunk of lead: Dull, unattractive
	Dough: Money

TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT

INNERMOST PURPOSE: Save the world from the evils of drink

SLOGAN: "Stop drinking alcohol!"

FAVORITE PASTIME: Going to speakeasies and telling people not to drink

What a den of liquored sin! There isn't a soul here who isn't zozzled. Our chief members are Professor Agatha Quinn and debutante Alexandra Belle, and they are here tonight to support our cause. Every weekend we go to speakeasies and wave our fingers at flappers and fellas indulging in the devil's drink.

Many folks think we're wet blankets, but we're not ashamed of such a reputation. When a puppy is trapped in a burning building, a wet blanket saves that puppy's life. People who drink alcohol obviously don't care about puppies. The Temperance Movement might be against drinking, but we're for puppies. It is an honor to be called a wet blanket.
