A SANDWICH, AND YOU

COSTUMES!

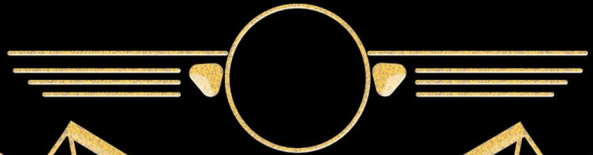

We always encourage dressing up!

It is not necessary or required to costume yourself in order to participate in the game. However, if you'd like to add to the experience, here are some ideas:

LADIES: The classic 1920's look is the flapper. Fringe, shorter skirts, sequins and flair, pearl necklaces, headband like headpieces. Or perhaps you are more of an everyday gal: longer skirts, bows and ties at the neck and "waist," cloche hats, gloves. Dropped waists and geometric designs — art deco for both!

GENTLEMAN: Double breasted suits, regular suits, button downs, bow ties, fedoras, slicked back hair, bowlers, boaters, pinstripes, suspenders, newsboy caps, vests, arm garters for rolling up your shirt.

NON-BINARY: Mix and match from either the above, or perhaps go the writer-route, with a sweater vest or cardigan over a button-up and a newsboy cap and bow tie. As in every era, people were playing with how they expressed themselves.

MRS. FISHER'S 6th GRADE CLASS

TEACHER'S PET: Hilda Higgins

THIS WEEK'S GROUP PROJECT: Use crayons, macaroni, and pipe cleaners to make art inspired by the dark underbelly of society

CLASS PET: Scorpion

We're excited to hear Mrs. Ruby Pearl Billions sing! Hilda Higgins is Mrs. Ruby's number one fan, so she's especially excited to be here. We're at Frankie's Fix on a school field trip to learn about the repercussions of prohibition on the middle class. When we get back to school, we're going to make art that represents how bootlegging has affected America's political climate. Our class makes the best macaroni art, so we should all get A's.

Hilda is the teacher's pet because she's swell smart. She knows what a political climate is, and she understands all the symbols in The Great Gatsby. No one else in the class knows what the green light means. Or the American dream. Or how to say Mr. Fitzgerald.
