COSTUMES!

We always encourage dressing up!

It is not necessary or required to costume yourself in order to participate in the game. However, if you'd like to add to the experience, here are some ideas:

LADIES: The classic 1920's look is the flapper. Fringe, shorter skirts, sequins and flair, pearl necklaces, headband like headpieces. Or perhaps you are more of an everyday gal: longer skirts, bows and ties at the neck and "waist," cloche hats, gloves. Dropped waists and geometric designs — art deco for both!

GENTLEMAN: Double breasted suits, regular suits, button downs, bow ties, fedoras, slicked back hair, bowlers, boaters, pinstripes, suspenders, newsboy caps, vests, arm garters for rolling up your shirt.

NON-BINARY: Mix and match from either the above, or perhaps go the writer-route, with a sweater vest or cardigan over a button-up and a newsboy cap and bow tie. As in every era, people were playing with how they expressed themselves.

SUSPECT NOTES

DOCTORS AND BILLIONAIRES WITHOUT BORDERS

SLOGAN: "Cure Every Billionaire"

OUR GREATEST CHALLENGE: Borders

We've arrived from our charity's gala naming Blake Billions the head of Doctors and Billionaires Without Borders. In recognition, our committee gave Blake a plaque, a medal, a key to the city, a statue of himself, and a yacht. It's the least we could do. DBWOB has treated over 500 billionaires the world over. Our mission is to cure the most devastating diseases known to man: billionaire malaria, billionaire typhoid, and the extremely deadly billionaire sniffles. Only when billionaires never sneeze again will we have reached our goal.

Ruby Pearl Billions is one of our greatest success stories. Last year she came to us with billionaire sore throat, and her probability of not having a sore throat anymore was only 99%. But our treatment regimen of cough drops and tea with honey worked, and she's been in remission for over two months. We are delighted to hear her sing tonight.
