THE WORST THING: Stripes

We're the decade's dyno designers of the freshest and stretchiest spandex on the market today. Dr. G. Buster is our club president, and he designed June Fondue's stellar exercise outfits. June Fondue's release party for her new fitness video "We Can Work It Out" is the most chic event in town, and only the most excellent people are attending tonight. So naturally we're here.

Dr. G. Buster started his design career with an Etch A Sketch and the will to succeed. We have polka dot designers pushing the boundaries of what is possible: researching the newest, stretchiest fabrics, studying if chartreuse goes with anything, and investigating just how big can a polka dot be?
